Subject: Ray and Associates: Results from Surveys and Community Forums

Summary/Description:

On August 15, 2017, the Lynchburg City School Board hired Ray and Associates to assist with the search activities for the new superintendent. Since that time, representatives from the firm have met with members of the school board to discuss the timeline for the search and receive input regarding what they consider to be important qualities and attributes for the new superintendent.

A survey, which was available to the Lynchburg community was administered, and on September 25, 2017, representatives from the firm met with individuals from colleges and universities; the Lynchburg City Schools Education Foundation, Inc.; Partners in Education; Lynchburg Education Association; the Lynchburg City Council; clergy; non-profit organizations; city officials; teachers; parents; and students. An additional forum was conducted today at 6:00 p.m., and all members of the Lynchburg community were invited to attend.

During this presentation, Dale Caldwell, an associate of Ray and Associates, will provide results gathered from the surveys and community forums. The school board will then consider the qualities and attributes that will become part of the desired qualifications for the new superintendent.
