The Lynchburg City School Board met for its annual retreat at the Brewer Center at Lynchburg College beginning at 8:00 a.m. on October 6, 2010. During the two-day retreat, the school board discussed, the alignment of the comprehensive plan, the school operating budget, and the annual report; the school board policy regarding reduction in force; and legislative positions for 2010-11. The school board also received an update on educational performance, a briefing by consultants regarding procedures associated with adjusting school attendance zones, an update on Skillful Teacher, an update on the Fort Hill Community School, and a briefing by legal counsel.

The meeting adjourned at 12:00 noon on October 7, 2010.
