

SMS Sunday Message: March 29

Good evening, Spartan Family! This is Matthew A. Mason, proud principal of Sandusky Middle School, and here is an important announcement for the week of March 30 - April 3. This message has been forwarded to our SMS family via email, and will also be available on our website under the Sunday Messages tab.

SMS Family, we just want to say that we love you. This is definitely a difficult time for all, yet we will get through this together. Please be sure to listen and review all messages sent out by Cindy Babb concerning our next phase of learning experiences and food distribution times and locations. Continue to follow all instructions concerning social distancing, washing hands, and other strategies so that we can flatten the curve. Students, the hardest thing about this time is not seeing your faces. This is not a time to sit, however. It is a time to grow. Find some way to get better everyday. Read, build, converse, create. This is the time. It's all about perspective.

Families, we are here for you. We look forward to seeing everyone in the near future.

Please check today's email, our Twitter account (@Spartans_SMS), and our website for more important information on school events. Again, this is Matthew A. Mason, and SMS is pleased to serve our community!
